

EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION PROGRAM

Purpose: To recognize Recreational Sports employees who go above and beyond to embody our Rec Sports values.

Each month, four Recreational Sports employees will be recognized as Rec Sports All-Stars. Rec Sports All-Stars are employees who consistently go above and beyond in their role and help bring our department values to life through their work, attitude, and interactions with others.

Nomination Eligibility

- Any Recreational Sports employee, excluding professional staff, is eligible to be nominated as a Rec Sports All-Star.
- Any employee may nominate an individual to be a Rec Sports All-Star. The nomination form is available through Connect2, area websites/handbooks, and flyers posted by the timeclocks at Rec Sports facilities.

Employees selected as Rec Sports All-Stars will receive a shoutout on Rec Sports social media, including Instagram, Facebook, and LinkedIn. They will also receive a Rec Sports All-Star button.

Nomination Process

- Access the nomination form through Connect2, area websites/handbooks, or flyers posted by the timeclocks.
- Include the nominee's name, position, and the area where they work.
- Provide a description of why the person is being nominated.
- Connect the nomination to one or more Rec Sports values, when possible.
- Select the Rec Sports value or values the nominee embodied most.

Review and Selection

All-Star submissions will be reviewed, and winners will be determined by the Recreational Sports Student Training and Development Committee. Employees selected as Rec Sports All-Stars will be contacted by the Assistant Director for Staff Engagement and Data Management. Special consideration will be given to nominees who have been nominated multiple times in a month or were nominated in a previous month.
